

- There may be a Fab Five effect in the nation's spending habits. A survey of more than 2,600 shoppers at malls in seven cities found men were five times more likely than women to go shopping on Wednesdays following a new Tuesday episode of Bravo's Queer Eye for the Straight Guy.