Job seekers can win suit, stylist at Syms

WOODBIDGE — Syms retail stores have launched the Syms Suit Camp Sweepstakes, which will give 30 winners a free brand-name interview suit valued at $400, a session with a top stylist, and an interview coaching session.

Winners can virtually tune into the live training session, via Skype, where the interview coach will offer tips and personal training to help prepare job seekers for their next big interview. The stylist will assist the winners in picking out the "right suit," along with providing fashion advice and tips.

The sweepstakes will be offered in stores through Sept. 2. Applications can be found at the township-based location on 555 King Georges Road.

Sign up online at www.UncleSyms.com. Entries will continue to be accepted online through Sept. 19.

From Aug. 20 through Sept. 25, 30 winners will be chosen at random to receive the Syms prize.
